April is Rotary Magazine Month.

The History

The first regional magazine was started in Great Britain and Ireland in 1915, not long after The National Rotarian appeared. In the 1920s, a Rotary regional magazine in Australia became the predecessor to Rotary Down Under. This Australian magazine was the first regional publication to gain RI approval. Though regionals were published in several continental European countries in the 1920s and 1930s, they suspended publication during World War II.

The founders of three Latin American regional publications were Rotary leaders. El Rotario Peruano, the official regional magazine of Peru, was founded in 1933 by Fernando Carbajal Segura, RI president in 1942-43. The first editor of Rotarismo en México, founded in 1974, was Frank J. Devlyn, RI president in 2000-01. And the predecessor of Brasil Rotário, a bulletin called Noticias Rotárias that started in 1924, was edited by Joo Thomas Saboya e Silva, then president of the newly founded Rotary Club of Rio de Janeiro, which had been chartered a year earlier.

The magazines today

The Rotarian and the Rotary World Magazine Press enjoy a mutually cooperative and beneficial working relationship. Information is freely shared, as is expertise and help in the field. This system enables RI to distribute its message throughout the world. Articles and photographs from each monthly issue of The Rotarian are sent to the regionals, including the President's Message, material from Rotary Insider, and special features promoting the RI theme, Rotary and Rotary Foundation programs, and the international convention. Though the publications help promote RI's mission, each magazine retains its individual identity, national flavor, and editorial freedom.

Earl Johnson from the Social Security Administration provided a lively and entertaining description of the intricacies of social security. He was hosted by Claudia Pupo.

NEXT WEDNESDAY DON'T COME HERE!

The meeting will be held at the Virginia Aquarium on General Booth Boulevard, north of Birdneck Road. Same time, 7:30 AM to 8:30 AM

THE FOUR WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the Truth?
2. Is it Fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build Goodwill and Better Friendships?
4. Will it be Beneficial to all concerned?
