Quirky One-Liners

- Eagles may soar, but weasels don't get sucked into jet engines
- Early bird gets the worm, but the second mouse gets the cheese
- Mind Like A Steel Trap - Rusty And Illegal In 37 States
- 24 hours in a day ... 24 beers in a case ... coincidence?

October is Vocational Service Month
The Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve

Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of my community

Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation

Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public, and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship

Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society

Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community

Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession

Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.

THE FOUR WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the Truth?
2. Is it Fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build Goodwill and Better Friendships?
4. Will it be Beneficial to all concerned?
