Convenient local and online make-up meeting locations are on the back!

Landscape Architect Billy Almond spoke to the club last week. He was hosted by Charlie Ansell.

One of the more colorful traditions of Rotary is the exchange of club banners. Rotarians traveling to distant locations often take banners to exchange at make-up meetings as a token of friendship. Many clubs use the decorative banners they have received for attractive displays at club meetings and district events.

The approximately 20,000 banners in the Rotary History and Archives collection reflect clubs' hometown pride and their connection with the international organization.

In addition to incorporating the Rotary emblem, banners often include symbols or imagery of a club's town, region, or country. Others represent local craftsmanship or cultural traditions by displaying leatherwork, weaving, embroidery, or hand-painted designs. (excerpted from www.rotary.org)

Did you get your Bay Beach Festival tickets yet?

Each & every Rotarian is expected to sell a minimum of 10 tickets.
